11 am missa pro populo

Dear friends,

After 10 yrs. here at St Margaret's as your pastor, the time has come for me to move on. It has been my great privilege to serve you this past decade. Your faith has been an inspiration to me, but I feel the parish could benefit from some fresh leadership, and that it is time for me to depart. Cardinal Collins has accepted my resignation and granted me a generous sabbatical leave during which I will take a rest from parish ministry, and actively discern what priestly ministry I may offer after my sabbatical.

Beginning 26 June my sabbatical leave will begin, and you will be getting a new pastor. His name is Fr. Roselle Azares. Fr. Azares is just finishing up his sabbatical leave, having taken the same course I took in Rome just before I arrived here. I look forward to showing your new pastor around, and with great confidence, assuring him that he is coming to a faith-filled parish, where the people are generous and warm-hearted. I know he will receive a hearty welcome from all of you.

God's peace to all. Fr. Jim.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is now available on-line at
