Consecration of Archdiocese of Toronto to the Blessed Virgin Mary

On May 1, 2020, Cardinal Archbishop Collins consecrated our Archdiocese of Toronto to the Blessed Virgin Mary, to seek her protection for all the faithful, from the continuing Covid-19 pandemic.

Pope Francis has also issued a letter encouraging the faithful to seek the blessed Virgin Mary's intercession during these trying times of the pandemic.

You can find the full letter on the Vatican website: www.vatican.va

O Mary,

You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the foot of the cross, were united with Jesus' suffering, and persevered in your faith.

"Protectress of the Roman people", you know our needs, and we know that you will provide,

so that, as at Cana in Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.

For he took upon himself our suffering, and burdened himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.

Amen.

We fly to your protection,

O Holy Mother of God;

Do not despise our petitions

in our necessities,

but deliver us always

from every danger,

O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.

Every year during Catholic Education Week, the Archdiocese of Toronto recognizes the dedication of Catholic teachers, students, parents, staff and everyone who supports Catholic education. Catholic education offers a wonderful opportunity to pass the faith onto another generation and to teach values that will serve people well for the rest of their lives.

This year's Catholic Education Week theme was, "Igniting Hope," which is inspired by Romans 15:13, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." It couldn't be a more fitting theme during this unprecedented time. During adversity we must turn to our faith and remember that we are people of hope - brighter days will prevail and it is hope and faith that will guide us there.

Although we are celebrating Catholic Education Week in a much different way this year, this is still a wonderful opportunity to recognize how fortunate we are to share in the gift of Catholic education. It is also the perfect time to recognize everyone in our school communities who continue to work together, during these challenging times, to provide our students with the very best possible faith-based education.

Congratulations

"Christ in you, the hope of glory." (Colossians 1:27)

"I'm deeply grateful for the work of all of those engaged in Catholic education," said Cardinal Collins. "In the different ways in which they serve and make Catholic education a bright, shining diamond in the midst of the darkness in which we are currently going through." Cardinal Thomas Collins
