Confirmation

Saturday May 30th was the date that the youth of St. Margaret's were to have been confirmed. Sadly because of COVID19 this did not happen. Families effected were notified and as soon as we determine when we can celebrate this sacrament we will notify everyone.

Fr. Roselle remembered all the confirmandi and their families when he celebrated his private mass in the chapel Saturday evening.

Parishioners are encouraged to continue praying for the confirmandi and their families. Pray that the youth and everyone know that Jesus our Friend desires to be close to and bless them and you always. Know in your heart that Jesus loves you.

Congratulations

St. Vincent de Paul,

St. Margaret's Conference

Self isolation and general health risks have impacted us all, including the efforts to offer support to the most vulnerable.

St. Vincent de Paul procedures have been streamlined to implement the social distancing requirements. We continue to operate our Food Pantry on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings 10:00am to 11:30am. Bags of food are prepared according to the number of people in the household and ready for pickup. The first three months of 2020, we served over 200 households, (including single, couples, 89 families with 276 children).

Our used furniture and household items service is on hold.

We are blessed with continued financial support from individuals, businesses and organization. This act of giving allows us to purchase the food for our pantry, assist with emergency funding for shelter, utility expenses, medication, eye wear, and transportation. These donations truly reflect awareness of the direct and essential needs of our community. We are extremely grateful.

Should you wish to make a monetary donation, cheques can be made to St. Vincent de Paul and mailed/delivered to St. Margaret's Church. Also, online contributions can be made through Canada Helps.

If you know of someone who is in need of food or other social assistance, please reach out by calling 705-526-7585, leave a message and someone will return your call.

From the Pastor's Desk

Permanezcan Amandose

Picture yourself as Peter when Jesus asks you, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?' Jesus asks you further, 'Do you know that I love you?' Wouldn't you respond by saying, 'Lord, you know I love you. Thank you for coming back to me. I weep for the hurt and harm that I have inflicted on you and others. I failed you, but right now what I need most is your love. Comfort me and assure me of your love so that I can move on with my life.'

Again, Jesus asks, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me? Do you love me with all your heart? Do you love me so that you also know my heart? My sheep are hungry, thirsty and scattered. Some are in darkness and confusion forgetting who I am and what I have done to them. Do you really love me?' Wouldn't you reply and say, 'Lord, you know I love you. I need your love to free myself to pursue you. Love makes me wanting to feel and know your heart and mind. I want to hear your voice more closely. I want to share your thinking, your goals and your motivations for doing things.'

Third time Jesus asks, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me? Do you love me and love your neighbour? Do you love them so as to leave the ninety-nine and search for the one who is lost? Do you love them that you will give the most loving thing that you can offer and are willing to sacrifice everything you have for them?' Wouldn't you respond and say, 'Lord, you know that I love you. I need your love to fill my heart, transform my mind, and free myself in order to give myself in loving service to others.'

Perhaps at the end of the day, Jesus still asks: 'After all we have gone through, after all the experiences of pain, frustration and disappointment, do you love me? Even though the other day you let me down, even though your words have hurt me so much, do you love me?'

We just had the Feast of the Lord's Ascension. We did not celebrate the end of Jesus' presence in the world. On the contrary, we celebrated the change of the way He is present in the world. Jesus is no longer physically present in the world through his human body. Instead, He is present through his Mystical Body, the Church, in a spiritual way by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is still with us and continues to see us with a loving heart. Further, He is not asking for plans, words and intentions – but for love. He wishes to replace every denial, every sin, every doubt, with a statement of our love for him. His question of 'do you love me?' opens the door of love and caring, the door of understanding and belonging together, the door in which emotions count and affection is essential.

If you feel that you are far from God, or you find it difficult to love God at this time, it may help to ponder his question 'Do you love me?' The love of God, being loved and cherished by God, loving God is what gives our lives their shape and form, their texture and fullness. Let us also remember the mode by which Jesus acts in the world today – through us. We are his hands and feet.

Let us close with a prayer

by Fr. Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

Nothing is more practical than finding God,
Than falling in Love in a quite absolute, final way.
What you are in love with,
What seizes your imagination will affect everything,
It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning,
What you do with your evenings,
How you spend your weekends,
What you read, whom you know,
What breaks your heart,
And what amazes you with joy and gratitude.
Fall in love, stay in Love,
And it will decide everything.

Grace and blessing, Fr. Roselle
