Archdiocese of Toronto

India is reeling from a devastating COVID-19 outbreak. In recent days, the country has been reporting more than 400,000 of new cases and 4,000 deaths every 24 hours.

In response to numerous inquiries we are providing information for those who may wish to contribute to relief efforts to assist the people of India.

The Archdiocese of Toronto will send donations through Development and Peace to Caritas Internationalis, an international confederation of Catholic humanitarian organizations that is already in India helping those who are suffering during this COVID-19 outbreak.

Since the pandemic began, India's Catholic Church, acting principally through Caritas India, has been supporting some of the most disadvantaged groups. Relief services and materials provided by the Church, or with its support, include:

- Food at kitchens & distribution centres in slums, etc.
- Masks, sanitizers & hygiene kits to the vulnerable
- Psychosocial support and hotline services to traumatized and grieving people
- Public education on infection prevention & vaccination
- Supporting the public healthcare system, including donating expertise, facilities and equipment from Church-run clinics and hospitals

To learn more about Caritas' work in India, please watch this video: <http://bitly/CaritasIndiaRelief>

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website:

www.archtoronto.org

By phone through the Development Office – 416-934-3411

Through the parish, making cheques payable to:

St. Margaret's Parish – India's Outbreak – Disaster Relief

Please continue to pray for the people of India and all those who are suffering from COVID-19 worldwide. Thank you for your continued assistance.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for June

Evangelization: The Beauty of Marriage

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

Reflection for Trinity Sunday

We Do what We Pray.

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity. We are back to what is called Ordinary Time of the Church calendar. It's not really so 'ordinary'. Every Sunday is a Sunday celebrating the Blessed Trinity. The readings during this cycle are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects. We begin on Trinity Sunday by contemplating the mystery of God.

Simply stated, the mystery of the Holy Trinity states that there is one God in three Divine Persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, yet there is only one God, not three Gods, - one nature in three distinct divine Persons. It is a mystery – not to be solved and explained, but to be professed and lived.

It is the mystery of the God who created us and our world out of love, a love so perfect and complete that we cannot begin to understand it; the God who continues to re-create us and our world in the gift of His Son, the very love of God made man and real for us.

Out of the same mysterious love, God calls us back again and again, not as an all-powerful Creator demanding homage from his subjects, but as a compassionate Parent wanting to embrace His children and loving them unconditionally. God invites us to a relationship with Him not based on fear but centered in love, mercy and trust.

Fr. James McKearn relates beautifully the Holy Trinity to the sign of the cross that we make at the beginning and end of every prayer. He points out that making the sign of the cross is more than a routine procedure. It is a prayer in itself, a very profound one. This visible sign is a powerful profession of our faith in the existence of the Holy Trinity. In fact, it is a mini-liturgy – doing and saying something that is distinctively religious.

One of the ways to deepen the meaning of today's celebration is to concentrate on the reverent use of this sacred sign. We touch our heads showing our assent of faith, as we pronounce the name of the Father, our divine Creator. It's a dedication of our minds to God. Our finger tips next come to rest at the base of our hearts, symbol of love. We speak the name of the world's greatest Lover, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, God-Man and Savior. The sign is concluded as the fingers move from one shoulder to the other, signifying eagerness to give our arms and hands to good works under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Finally, the hands interlock, showing we are united and single-minded in our efforts.

With this conclusive gesture we say 'Amen' – so be it.

Every blessing of the Church flows from the Trinity, traced out through the Sign of the Cross. Under that sign we begin and end our prayer. In the name of the Trinity, we were signed in Baptism, have had our sins forgiven and received many blessings. And that same familiar sign will bid us safe passage to the eternal Kingdom. Today's celebration of the Trinity confronts us with our response to God's invitation, and our worthiness to be called God's children.

May Trinity Sunday inspire each of us to manifest faith with our minds, love with our hearts, service with our hands, in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.
