Silence to Peace

I am fed up; I give up! These words express the emotional and psychological condition of many people today, revealing the exhaustion and burnt out by stress, disappointment, opposition and uncertainty, within the family, at work, and even in the church. We are tempted to 'throw the towel'. We can only wonder if we will be able to recover the meaning of life, our peace of mind and our determination to act.

The prophet Elijah (First Reading, 1Kings 19: 4-8) is a typical case of 'burnout'. He presented God and the demands of social justice to the people. But he was rejected and even persecuted. Tired of his mission, tired of his life, he no longer saw any meaning in serving God. It is enough; O Lord, take away my life. His faith and fidelity were in deep crisis.

Twice an angel woke him up from his sleep of despair and invited him to eat and drink. The food came from God! God gave Elijah new courage. The angel told him the journey is too much for you. The intent was to infuse new meaning into the prophet's life. God has much more to offer in his life. Elijah thus regained his faith and trust in the Lord.

The Gospel on this Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (John 6: 41-51) tells us that the food from God, which gives us new life, is Jesus himself. Whoever believes has eternal life... I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever. As I abide in Jesus in humble faith, I once again acquire the will to live. I get a boost in life and regain the patience necessary for faithfully doing the task given to me.

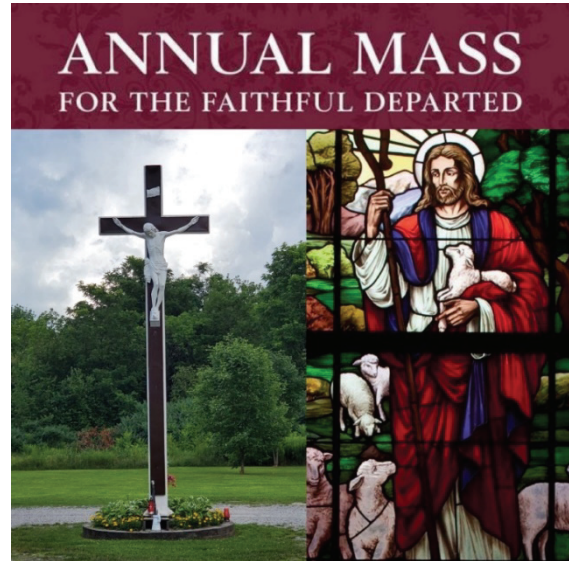

In the midst of doubt, stress and uncertainty, it seems hard to regain faith and fidelity. But this Sunday's Gospel assures us that God the Father himself is instructing us and drawing us closer to Jesus. In our anguish, we might say, Lord I believe, help my unbelief. Thus, we overcome life's stresses. We remain loyal in our adherence to Christ. We regain the courage and patience we need in order to generously serve others. Jesus is the living bread for my life, but also for the life of the world.

St. Mother Theresa provides us a program for recovery: The fruit of silence is prayer; the fruit of prayer is faith; the fruit of faith is love; the fruit of love is service; the fruit of service is peace. From silence to faith to service. No baseball game is won without a 'time out' or a 'visit to the mound by the coach'. No burnout or exhaustion is healed without moments of silence leading to prayer and faith. And if we pick up the love that leads to service, we arrive at the peace of Christ.
