World Mission Sunday – October 23/24, 2021

The second last Sunday of October has become known as World Mission Sunday. Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. Envelopes for this collection are included in your box and extras are available at the entrance and exits of the church.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for October: Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.

Living the Gospel by supporting the Deaf Community

We've all felt the pain of disconnection since the start of the pandemic. For the Deaf community, the connections severed by the pandemic are even more profound. Many became isolated from their peers and could no longer access the programs they relied upon.

Silent Voice is working to restore those connections. This ShareLife-funded agency is the only one in the area providing virtual programming for Deaf children, among its many services in American Sign Language.

October 31 is the next ShareLife Sunday.

Please give generously or anytime at sharelife.org.

St. Margaret's Cemetery

Thank you to all parishioners who help keep our Cemetery beautiful. Winterization has begun.

Water is no longer available in the cemetery and we will be closing the main gate some time in November. Please remove your summer decorations and consider placing a winter wreath that will withstand winter winds and weather.

Thank you

All Souls Day Nov. 2nd.
There are envelopes in the back of the church. Fill one out with the names of your dearly departed and put it in the collection basket. They will go on the altar for the month of November.

All Souls Day Indulgences

Visit to a Church or Oratory on All Souls Day. PLENARY INDULGENCE. A plenary indulgence, applicable ONLY to the souls in purgatory, may be obtained by those who, on All Souls Day, piously visit a church and recite one Our Father and one Creed.

Visit to a Cemetery. Only applicable to the souls in Purgatory when one devoutly visits and prays for the departed. A PLENARY INDULGENCE is bestowed for this work each day between November 1 and November 8.

To obtain an indulgence, you must pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, receive Holy Communion within days, and go to confession within weeks, and be free from attachment to sin (which isn't the same thing as not ever sinning) otherwise the indulgence becomes partial, which is still pretty good.

Reflection:

Sent Forth

The Church exists to evangelize. The Church, which is you and I, is missionary by nature. Through our baptism, we were incorporated into this body of Christ, the Church. For better or for worse, we are symbols of Christ in the world. It is, therefore, our mission, our very lifeblood to see Mission Sunday, which will be celebrated next weekend, not as an outsider, but as someone called to be on a mission.

Sadly, in the Church today many Catholics have been 'sacramentalized' but not catechized; baptized but not formed in the teaching of Jesus and his Church. A certain lethargy has attached itself to the Catholic Church, making us spiritually anemic, reluctant to share faith with others. We hear God's word and we are sometimes hesitant to live and proclaim it ourselves. We are to ask ourselves why – if the Word of God has not embedded itself within us, if Jesus means anyone or anything to us at all.

An old adage goes: we cannot give to others what we do not have ourselves. Hence, we need to be 'missionized'. If our Christianity is only a matter of rules and regulations like going to church on Sundays and not eating meat on Fridays, if our faith is only a matter of convenience and not of conviction; if Christ is only a statue and not a person whom we really know, then we are certainly thinking and viewing Mission Sunday as an outsider.

We need to have the faith level conviction in our intellect and in our heart. Once that happens, we will need no urging to witness to Christ. We will feel impelled from within to celebrate and share the life of Jesus. We are to begin today (Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time), which is actually called the 'Laity Sunday'.

Let us – both laity and ordained – light the lamp of Christ by what we say and what we live, by what we believe and what we stand for, and by the attitudes we manifest. May the people around us begin to see a difference in our lives, and let that difference be Christ himself. After all, He is there to inspire us every step of the way. Let us not forget that with this great commission: Go and make disciples of all nations, we also have his great promise: Know that I am with you always until the end of time.

Fr. Roselle

Courage is getting into the boat, knowing and trusting the one who is in the boat of life with you. Christ's love never lets us down.
