Reflection: We are One Body

In the Gospel on this Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus formally announces his mission at the synagogue in his hometown Nazareth, quoting from the prophet Isaiah. Jesus unequivocally emphasizes his concern for those in the peripheries of society – the poor, prisoners, the blind, and the victims of injustice.

What can we do to share in the mission of Jesus?

To bring good news to the poor: We cannot deny the 'poverty' of each person. Even the rich are not assured of happiness and fulfillment. We can be attentive to the needs of every individual, with special attention to those lacking the basic necessities of life. To bring the good news to them is to give them hope in a God who is genuinely concerned about them.

To proclaim liberty to captives: this speaks not only of prisoners. Each one of us has attachments and addictions which hinder our freedom to love and serve God and people. God wishes to liberate us from our sinful tendencies and habits.

To give new sight to the blind: Wealth, honor and power can make us blind about our true identity. We tend to feel self-sufficient and that our fate in life is completely in our hands: God and others could become irrelevant. We need enlightenment to understand the truths in our life.

To announce the Lord's year of mercy: Equally significant is the declaration of Jesus after he read the prophecy of Isaiah: Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing (4: 21) The contemporary challenge for us is whether the mission of Jesus is being achieved now. What do we do to ensure that these prophetic words come true in our days?

The second reading from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians tells us how the mission of Christ is fulfilled in the Church, which with Christ as Head forms one body, with each member with a different role for the health and growth of the body. As in a body, if one part is dysfunctional, the body suffers: if a member of the Church strays away or does not do his/her part, the body of the Church suffers. If the members do not work together and are not unified, the body of the Church suffers. The unity and cooperation of Church members are indications of Christ's effective abiding presence and influence in the Church.

The mission of evangelization continues as a challenge in our more modern and more complex world. We need creativity and faith to execute the mandated mission of Christ given to all the baptized. May we have the courage to joyfully and persistently work to spread and share the Good News of Christ amidst disappointments and failures. We must live in hope that the mission of Christ will come true even now.

The Pope's Prayer Intention For January

For true human fraternity ~

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for February

For Religious Sisters and Consecrated Women

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

World Day for Consecrated Life February 2, 2022

In the Archdiocese of Toronto, we are blessed to have more than 900 religious men and women serving in our midst, representing about 120 religious congregations. They each make significant contributions to our community in parish ministry, education, healthcare, outreach, social service and many other areas of pastoral care. We are deeply thankful for their witness of humble service as they live the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

February 2 is the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life. You are invited to for the religious serving us and around the world in so many capacities.

USHERS

St. Margaret's needs more ushers for all the weekend masses. If you are able to spare some time before and after mass to offer hospitality to guests and fellow parishioners we need your help.

REMEMBER

During the winter months, parishioners are cautioned to stay well away from the sides of the church, and not to park where the snow may fall off the steel roof.
