The Pope's Prayer Intention for April

For Health Care Workers

We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

Easter Reflection: Unwavering Hope

If we patiently and attentively follow the readings for the Easter Vigil, we will see why the symbols of light and water are so appropriate in recalling the life-giving and redemptive action of God in human life.

We are taken on a journey in the last two days we were reminded of the darkness of this world where even the Son of God was not spared from the evil designs of human persons. It is not difficult to see how people continue to be crucified today – to poverty, corruption, conflict, inefficiency and small-mindedness. At the liturgy of light on Easter Vigil, we are reminded that darkness is part of human experience but the light of God, of his Christ, is here to dispel the darkness.

We begin with the story of God's creation; then the story of Abraham's faithfulness and obedience to God's command to sacrifice his only son Isaac, then the dramatic pre-figurement of our redemption in the great exodus from slavery in Egypt to freedom by passage through the sea as in dry land.

In the New Testament Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans, we hear of our baptism as our participation in Christ's death and resurrection. In the Gospel reading from Luke, angels proclaim that Christ has risen as he had said.

We are not redeemed by our own efforts: even the disciples deserted Jesus at his crucifixion, his head follower Peter betrayed him before the servant-woman. Ours is a history of fear and failure and tonight we remember that, if we have hope, it is only because God hopes in us. We like to say that we are an Easter people, people of hope but it is not we who hope as much as God who hopes in us.

Remember the many instances when God's people turned away from their covenant with God and worshipped false gods. Time and again, Israel was unfaithful; time and again God forgave and took them back. God continues to make and fulfill his promises. It is Yahweh who does not lose hope in his people. It is God who continues to hope in us, even when we seem so unfaithful and hopeless.

Remember the loving and forgiving father of the prodigal son. That is the kind of love and hope God has for and in us.

Just as God in Jesus has hope in us, so we must be people of hope. If our acts of hope are to be rooted in our Easter faith, then we must remain connected to Jesus. It is He who can give us the grace to set aside our prejudices and biases, our comfort zones and weaknesses, and enable us to live as people of hope.

A blessed Easter!

Fr. Roselle

Alleluia!
Praise the Lord!
THE SONG OF OUR REJOICING
It is added to acclamations and antiphons and may be used as a refrain for the Responsorial Psalm and Communion Song.

The Paschal Candle
is the central symbol of the Easter season, sign of the presence of the risen Lord, light of the world

The sprinkling rite (with water blessed at the Easter Vigil) is often used at the beginning of Masses on Sundays

Confirmation and First Eucharist are celebrated during the Easter season

As far back as the Council of Nicaea (325), the Church reflected Easter joy by prohibiting fasting and kneeling, which are signs of penance, throughout the season. During the Easter season, we stand (rather than kneel) during the Litany of the Saints.

The constant joy of the season continues throughout the fifty days and should be reflected in the festive decoration of the church building

The Acts of the Apostles is read at all celebrations in place of the Old Testament because it presents the life, growth and witness of the early Church
