May

Faith-Filled Young People

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Reflection: Solo Dios Basta

God alone is sufficient

A story is told about a Roman soldier during the first centuries of Christianity. He was sent on a long military campaign, leaving his wife with child. While he was gone, his wife gave birth. Soon thereafter, she converted to Christianity, was baptized and had her child baptized as well.

Meanwhile, the soldier also met some Christians and heard their explanations about the gift of faith and the grace of baptism. When he returned home, his wife was overjoyed to see him, but nervous about what his reaction would be to her baptism.

She decided to break the news gradually. First, she showed him their child, casually mentioning that he had been baptized as a Christian. The husband looked shocked and became quiet. He looked again at the child, thoughtfully. Then he knelt down beside the crib. He bowed his head, closed his eyes and started to pray silently.

His wife was surprised. Kneeling next to him, she asked what he was doing. He looked at her and said, 'I am praying to the one, true God. If our son has been baptized, he has himself become a holy place! Christ the Lord, his Father and Creator of all, and the living Holy Spirit have made his home in his heart, so we can pray to God there'.

This may sound naïve and childish to some, but that is the truth. In Baptism, we have received the divine life, indelibly imprinted in our souls. We have in us the presence of the Triune God – Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Jesus declares in the gospel reading this Sixth Sunday of Easter: We will come to him and make our home with him. God resides in us. St. Paul tells us that we are temples of the Holy Spirit.

Since eternity, this has been the desire of God – to be close to us. That is precisely the reason for the mystery of the Incarnation. The eternal Son of God took on human nature to be one with us and to dwell in us. Unfortunately, we do not always have this in mind. Instead of looking inside us and discover the presence of God, the source of true and lasting peace and happiness, we look for something else outside.

This is the main reason why we cannot attain lasting peace, pure contentment and true happiness in our life. We are chasing elsewhere, outside – material things, power, prestige and adulation – and we end up more frustrated, tired and discouraged than ever. What is needed is only to obey God in love, and God will dwell in us. Then we will have peace, happiness and salvation.

Let us end this reflection with the prayer by St. Theresa of Avila, Nada te Turbe:

Let nothing disturb you,
nothing frighten you,
all things are passing.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Whoever has God lacks nothing.
God is enough.

Father Roselle
