The Pope's Prayer Intention for June

For Families

We pray for Christian families around the world; June they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for July

For the Elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people. May their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Reflection: Behold the Lamb of God

God is the giver of many gifts and therefore one of the most important attitudes for us in our relationship with God is the attitude of thanksgiving. At the beginning of every Eucharistic Prayer at Mass, there is the call to give thanks to the Lord. To give thanks always and everywhere to God is most fitting for expressing the heart's gratitude for the goodness of the gift-giving God.

The very word 'Eucharist' comes from the Greek word for 'thanksgiving' and that is a reminder that every celebration of the Eucharist is a celebration of thanksgiving. That means that this Sunday can be seen as a very special 'thanksgiving day' and indeed for a very special gift.

The Second Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians reminds us of the Last Supper that Jesus had desired to share with the disciples before he died. As his gift, He took the bread and the cup saying that the bread was his body and the cup was the cup of his blood to be poured out on behalf of many. But the Lord did not intend his Last Supper to be just a mere 'one and only' celebration. To his disciples he said, 'do this in remembrance of me'. From that night when the gift of the first Eucharist was given, the Body and Blood of Jesus will continue to be given down through the centuries. Certainly, it is a gift worthy of the solemn celebration of this Sunday's feast!

But who can be worthy of such a gift? Let us not forget that the gift is freely given, not as a reward for holiness or goodness. It is a gift given by the Lord who totally loves everyone – saints and sinners alike – so that we can be nourished and be strong. In fact, the Second Eucharistic Prayer boldly proclaims: "We thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you." As the Prefaces for special masses for the Eucharist pray: As we eat of his body, which he gave for us, we grow in strength. As we drink of his blood, which he poured out for us, we are washed clean.

Thanksgiving is also expressed these days more and more by Eucharistic adoration (held here in our church every Friday before the noon mass). In the Body and Blood of Christ present in the Eucharist, the abiding presence of the Lord who is always 'Emmanuel' – God with us – is realized.

In a world of frenetic activity and distractions, quiet moments of prayerful – even without words – of 'being with' the Lord in the Eucharist is very nourishing. These quiet moments of thankful adoration can be special moments of experiencing his presence. Yes, there is so much to be thankful for in this celebration of the gift of Christ's Body and Blood.
