My Lord and My King

PRAYER

Are You my King? You know, my Lord Jesus, that You are! You also know that it is much easier to say it, to sing and declare it than it is to live it, this reality of your Kingship over me. For You to really be my King is for me to truly make You the end-all and be-all of my life.

This does not mean that I think of You all the time everywhere. I do not do that, perhaps no one ever can. But it is to have You at the centre of my life. It is to have Your word and example guide what I think, say and do. It is to see You, love You, and serve You in others, especially the least, the lost, and the last.

It is to love others, no longer as I love myself (which is great) but to love others as You loved me – which is much greater that I can imagine. I do that, and my declaration that You are my King would have solid foundation. I fail to do that, and my words will surely be beautiful—but empty and false.

Jesus, my Lord and My King, today and every day, please help me be sincere in my prayer. Like the good thief on Calvary, may I recognize You beneath, behind, beyond whatever guise You take, so that I may love You and serve You in ways befitting my King.

Rouse me from my lethargy, my laziness, my sleep. Thus, may my life be morning, noon, and nighttime, a prayer and a song: “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To [You] belong glory and power for ever and ever!” (Revelation 5: 12; 1:6).

Your servant and friend,
R C
