To Enter into Glory of God

Pope Francis once said that "entering the glory of God demands daily fidelity to his will, even when it demands sacrifice and sometimes requires us to change our plans." It is known that Jesus's ascension happened on the Mount of Olives where he had prayed to the Father before the Passion.

It was Our Lord's love of his Father that enabled him to endure suffering and death, and then return to the place of encounter to be raised into heaven. Through our relationship with the Father, we also receive the grace to be faithful to God's will, and may we one day reap the benefits—eternity with him. With Jesus, we say, "Not my will but yours be done" (Luke 22:42).

The Holy Father added: "The Ascension does not point to Jesus's absence, but tells us that he is alive in our midst in a new way. He is now...present in every space and time, close to each one of us. In our life we are never alone: we have this Advocate who awaits us, who defends us."

Before Jesus died on the cross, he promised that he would send the Holy Spirit to be with his people to accompany them. It is through this gentle Spirit that we perceive the presence of God and receive comfort, consolation, and wisdom to prepare us for our eternal destiny.

Dear Jesus, thank you for always being with me. Without the power of your Spirit in my life, I can do nothing. While I am still here on earth, help me to conform my will to your Father's will. Help me endure hardships with love for you. Let the thought of heaven with you console my heart deeply. Amen.

Grace and peace,

Father R C R A

The Pope's Prayer Intention for May

For church movements and groups

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of the needs in the world.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.
Acts 2:4
