Te Deum Laudamus

(We Praise You God)

God is a giver of many gifts and therefore one of the most important attitudes for us in our relationship with God is that of thanksgiving. At the beginning of every Eucharist Prayer at Mass, there is a call to give thanks to the Lord. To give thanks always and everywhere to God is the most fitting for expressing the heart's gratitude for the goodness of our gift-giving God.

The word Eucharist comes from the Greek words for "thanksgiving" and that is a reminder that every celebration of the Holy Mass is a celebration of thanksgiving. That means that this Sunday can be seen as a very special "thanksgiving day" and indeed for a very special gift.

The Gospel reminds us of the last supper that Jesus had desired to share with his disciples before his sacrifice on Calvary. As his last gift, he took the bread and the chalice saying that the bread was his Body and the chalice was that of his Blood to be poured out for many. But our Lord did not intend this last supper to be just a mere "once and only" celebration. To his disciples He said, "Do this in remembrance of me." From that night when the gift of the First Mass was given, the Body and Blood of Jesus will continue to be broken and shared through the ages. Certainly, it is a gift worthy of the solemn celebration of today's feast! Nobody can claim to be worthy of such a gift. Let us not forget that the gift is freely given; it is not a reward for holiness and goodness. It is a gift given by our Lord who totally loves everyone – for our spiritual nourishment. In the words of the Second Eucharistic Prayer: we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Thanksgiving is also expressed by Eucharistic adoration. In the Body of Blood of Christ present in the Eucharist, the abiding presence of the Lord is always "Emmanuel" – God is with us – is realized. In this world of frenetic activity and distractions, quiet moments of prayerful – even wordless – being with our Lord before the Tabernacle can also be very nourishing. These quiet and reverent moments of thankful adoration can be special moments of experiencing his presence. Yes, there is so much to be thankful for today in the celebration of the gift of Christ's Body and Blood!

Grace and peace,

St. Margaret's Reasons to Celebrate:

On June 2nd, Deacon Anthony celebrates his 12th Anniversary of Ordination to Permanent Diaconate. May God continue to bless Deacon Tony and his wife Pauline in their ministry.

Congratulations and God's continued blessings to Doug and Betty Swales on 70 years of marriage! They were married at St. Margaret's on June 5, 1954.

Thanks be to God!
